A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Joslyn Community,

I am thrilled to be a part of the wonderful Joslyn Center family! Your warm welcome has been truly heartening, and I am excited to get to know each of you better. Please feel free to drop by my office to say hello when you see me around or send me an email—I am always available to our members.

The work we do here at the Joslyn Center is incredibly important. We strive to create safe and inclusive spaces and activities that enrich the lives of senior adults. By joining any of our groups, activities, or events, you not only engage in enjoyable and stimulating experiences but also significantly benefit your mental health and physical wellbeing.

One of the hidden gems at the Joslyn Center is our Wellness Center. We have four dedicated counselors on staff, ready to work with you individually or in group settings, focusing on Problem Solving Strategies to help you achieve your daily, weekly, or lifetime goals. These services are free for our members.

A great way to get started is by attending one of their workshops or groups, where you can meet the staff and learn about the wide range of skills they offer to meet your needs. The Wellness Center can also connect you to various services in the Valley, from Adult Protective Services addressing housing and food scarcity to other nonprofits aiding. Consider joining our "Matter of Balance," "Mindfulness," "Adult Bereavement," or the "Open Topic Support Group."

We deeply appreciate your involvement and encourage you to spread the word. Tell your friends and neighbors about the vibrant community we have built here at the Joslyn Center and invite them to join our family.

Thank you once again for the warm welcome and for your continued support. Together, we can make the Joslyn Center a place where everyone feels valued and connected.

Warm regards,

Dr. Jay Seller
Executive Director

COVER STORY

B-I-N-G-O, and Bingo is its name! It should come as no surprise that one of the most popular activities at Joslyn is the weekly Bingo session on Tuesdays from noon to 3pm, and the doors open at 11am. There are nearly unlimited patterns that may be specified for play. Depending on the number of participants, payouts for each game may range from $30-$40 with the final game jackpot ranging from $175-$200. Dennis Lubas calls the shots each week and there is often an opportunity drawing as well.

Since its invention in 1929, modern bingo has evolved into multiple variations, with each jurisdiction's gambling laws regulating how the game is played. In the early 1920s, Hugh J. Ward created and standardized the game at carnivals in and around Pittsburg and Western PA, and copyrighted it and published a rule book in 1933. The game was further popularized by toy merchandiser, Edwin Lowe, after he saw people enthusiastically playing a game called "Beano".

Lowe brought the game to New York where friends enjoyed playing it. The name "Bingo" is said to have derived from a player mistakenly yelling out "Bingo" instead of "Beano". The game, by any other name, would still be a mainstay among senior centers, casinos, and church halls alike. So, come and get your game on and see what all the fun is about!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BOARD PRESIDENT

Welcome to summer season in the desert! The Cove Communities of Indian Wells, Palm Desert, and Rancho Mirage, and the Coachella Valley have experienced extreme heat warnings for the better part of the summer. As temperatures heated up, the Joslyn Center has been the coolest place in town!

I wanted to take this opportunity to highlight the Joslyn Center as an official Palm Desert Cool Center. It is the place to beat the heat from June 1 to October 15 during business hours. Joslyn opens at 8am and closes at 5pm, Monday-Friday, and is closed on weekends. Individuals who come to the Cooling Center at Joslyn Center are offered a snack and water. The Palm Desert Library is another Cool Center with weekend hours from 10am to 6pm on Saturday and 1-5pm on Sunday for individuals seeking relief from the heat.

In addition to providing a place to escape from extreme heat, Joslyn offers an array of enjoyable, informative, and enlightening activities in a relaxed environment, including Bingo! Members and Cool Center guests are encouraged to enjoy the day at Joslyn Center away from the elevated temperatures. People are encouraged to learn about the innovative programming, friendly social gatherings, health and Wellness Center fitness programs, as well as the information and educational classes.

Additional tips to maintaining your cool are to stay in air-conditioned buildings, not to rely on fans for cooling, limit outdoor exposure from mid-morning to mid-afternoon, avoid direct sunlight, wear loose, lightweight, light-colored clothing, and just take good care of yourself during the heat. It is also recommended to drink twice as much water during excessive heat alerts, and avoid alcohol, caffeine and sugary drinks which do not hydrate your body. In addition, take the time to check on at-risk friends, family, and neighbors at least twice a day, if possible.

As President, my goal is to continue to promote the programs, services, and activities of the Joslyn Center. Over the next few months, I will be taking part in a number of the activities at the Joslyn so I can become more familiar with the programming.

I continue to feel honored to lead such an amazing team and want to acknowledge the Joslyn Center staff who provide the services at the center. They provide a creative, innovative senior center under the leadership of our new Executive Director, Dr. Jay Seller. It is a small staff but mighty in their commitment to the members and the Cove Communities. I look forward to meeting members at the Joslyn Center over the next few months.

Barbara Mitchell, LCSW
Board President

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT - CLEONE MILLER

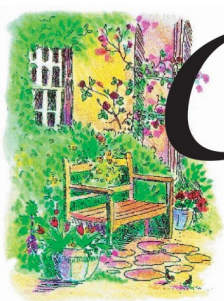

Cleone Miller has been part of the Joslyn family for well over 20 years. She started out as a member and eventually becoming a fabulous volunteer.

Originally from Kansas, Cleone was raised on farms in Oregon. Just ask her how to milk a cow! Two days after graduating from high school, she married Leo, who was to be her husband for the next 44 years until his passing in 1993. Six weeks after their wedding, they packed up and moved to the Coachella Valley with Leo's father.

Cleone originally came to Joslyn Center after her four children were out of school as a way to get out of the house and find something exciting to do. Now she is our 93-year-old volunteer. In the past, she has delivered meals for our Meals on Wheels program, and sold tickets at Les Michaels cabaret shows and also the Joslyn Players productions. These days, she comes in once-a-week to make calls for the Friendly Caller Program for a few hours. Through those calls, she enjoys all of the conversations that she gets to have with the clients. For information on the Friendly Caller Program, please contact Judy at 760-895-4655 or JudyS@JoslynCenter.org.

Cleone currently lives in Palm Desert with her daughter, has seven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild! Thanks for all that you do (and have done) for Joslyn Center, Cleone!!

A MESSAGE FROM THE WELLNESS CENTER

Hello to all who are reading this.

The cover of this Journal shows a Bingo game. A number of years ago I spent some time playing Bingo with an elderly family friend in an assisted living facility. Aside from the satisfaction of doing an activity with her, Bingo was kind of fun and it was new to me. As I looked around, people were paying rapt attention. You could tell they were serious about it!

I know that Bingo is comfortable fun for many people and that many people would - or do - not like it at all. But this reminds me of how very different our tastes can be from one another. Hence the old adage, "One [man's] person's food is another person's poison." Can you imagine if we all had to like the same thing? I am certain that there are countries on this planet where I would starve to death if I had to eat their traditional food!

So, what is the moral of all this? One is that at Joslyn Center we have innumerable activities, groups, classes to choose from. The next part of the moral is to define and refine for yourself what you do or do not like to do at this point in your life. As most of you know, our interests and tastes can change markedly over a lifetime. I used to enjoy things that are out of the question for me now. And, likewise, many things I now enjoy would not have interested me at all in my younger years, or even last year!

We must try to always remain open to knowing ourselves, going with the flow, trying new things, and continuing to do things that are familiar and bring us comfort. I think we can do all of this in combination. I hope you will think about these perspectives and do something that you already like or try something new!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PROGRAM DIRECTOR

A Fun Fact and a Personal Journey

Did you know that newborns blink their eyes only twice a minute, while seniors blink 15 to 20 times a minute? It's fascinating how things can change in the blink of an eye—quite literally!

No matter our age, learning is a constant in our lives. As many of you know, I've had several careers before taking on my current role as the Program Director here at The Joslyn Center. This new position has certainly accelerated my learning curve as I work to understand the needs of our members and coordinate with our talented teachers and presenters.

On a personal note, I'm about to embark on another exciting learning journey—becoming a father to a baby girl in 2025. Those of you with children or grandchildren understand just how life-changing this experience can be. The lessons she'll teach me will be invaluable, challenging, and deeply rewarding, much like the lessons I hope to bring to you through our programs here at the Center.

Each of you brings a wealth of experience, stories, and challenges that shape our daily lives. The Joslyn Center is here to support you through these moments, offering tools and programs to help you thrive in what are often called the best years of your life. With over 80 programs, from Go4Life® and Pickleball to keep you active, to Card Games for mental stimulation, we aim to meet your diverse needs. For those facing difficult times, we offer free individualized and group counseling, along with supportive courses on Mindfulness, Bereavement, and Balance.

Life's challenges can come out of nowhere, turning everything upside down. But here at The Joslyn Center, we're dedicated to helping you adapt and find solutions. So, blink as much as you like—we're here to ensure that you have the support and tools you need to navigate life's changes.
